Subject to the Society Act, the Association shall indemnify each Director, Officer, former Director or former Officer of the Association and his or her heirs and personal representatives against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in a civil or administrative action or proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association, including an action brought by the Association, if:

- a) he or she acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Association; and,
- b) he or she had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful.

Part 13 -Notices

13.1. Notice

- a) Any notice required to be given to a member or a Director pursuant to these bylaws shall be sent by prepaid mail or shall be hand delivered as the Secretary (or his or her nominee) deems appropriate to a member of Directors of the Association, and if no address is shown in the records of the Association, then to the last known address of such member or Director.
- b) Any notice shall be deemed to have been given when the notice has been deposited in the mail or when delivered by hand as determined by the Secretary (or his or her nominee), provided that the Association prepays the cost of such notice.
- c) A notice of a meeting of members shall state the day, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and, where any special business will be transacted at the meeting, the notice shall state a sufficient amount of information regarding the special business to allow the members to make a reasoned decision regarding the special business.

Part 14 -Amendment

The Constitution or Bylaws, excluding those described as unalterable, may be amended or repealed by a 75% majority vote of the members present as defined in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association at any duly constituted general meeting, provided that public notice of such proposed changes over the signature of the Secretary shall be posted on the concessions operated by the Association at least fifteen days prior to the meeting at which such proposed change shall be submitted to a vote.

14.1. Repeal Previous Bylaws

The Constitution and bylaws supersedes all prior Constitution and Bylaws of the North Delta Baseball Association which are now repealed.
